CAME CLEAR.

Wallace Southall Acquitted of a Serious Charge.

Wallace Southall, the young son of Mr. G. W. Southall, who was arrested last week at Mayfield, charged with aiding a man named Williams to work a "kiss game" on Simon Hawkins and relieve him of $20, was acquitted Saturday. Nothing was shown to connect young Southall with the affair. Williams was held over for the guilty party. Southall returned home Saturday night with his brother, Attorney Herman Southall, who went to Mayfield to look after the case.

THROUGH THE ROOF

Of Dwelling Crashed Stone Thrown From Quarry.

While rock was being quarried near the northern terminus of Elm street a huge stone was thrown into the air and fell on the roof of Mr. W. A. Rickman's house situated near by. The stone crashed through the roof over an unoccupied room, tearing a hole nearly a foot square and fell on the floor, splintering several planks. Furniture was slightly damaged by the falling plastering. A party of ladies had just a few moments before vacated the room.

BACK TO TRIGG.

Bush Meeting Cook This Week At His Appointments.

Rosy Reports From Lyon and Calloway Counties Continue to Come

Judge Cook, who was attending court in Calloway the first of the week, returned to Trigg after Judge Flournoy, of Paducah, was appointed judge. He was with Judge Bush at his appointments from Thursday to Saturday. The last one was at Cerulean Springs, where they addressed a crowd of about 60 voters, who seemed to be pretty evenly divided, although this has been claimed as a Cook stronghold. Judge Cook went to Paducah Saturday night and Judge Bush came home.

They will return to Trigg this week, filling Judge Cook's appointments, beginning at Roaring Springs to-day and winding up at Cadiz Saturday. Next week Judge Bush has several appointments in Lyon county. Information from Lyon is that Bush is growing stronger all the time. His supporters are largely in the majority in both Kuttawa and Eddyville and he will carry at least six of the nine precincts in the county.

Calloway continues to be one of the storm centers and drummers who have been over the county and many well informed politicians who have reliable information all agree that the county is very close, with indications more favorable to Bush. Some more very damaging local issues have been introduced into the campaign from the court records and Judge Cook was forced to write a card last week promising to explain this week when his local organ comes out.

HENDRICK STRENGTHENED.

General View Taken of Withdrawal by Frankfort Politicians.

Frankfort, Ky., April 19.—The withdrawal of Judge R. J. Breckinridge from the gubernatorial contest has added a new phase to the political situation in Kentucky, which, viewed from a Democratic standpoint, weakens Governor Beckham and strengthens his opponent, John K. Hendrick. This is the consensus of opinion expressed unreservedly by party leaders here who are identified with both the Hendrick and Beckham factions.

The latter had entertained an opinion that Judge Breckinridge would remain in the race, and that the opposition to the Beckham and Young machine would be divided, and is a great measure materially weakened.

There is little doubt but that Judge Breckinridge's strength will go to Hendrick, as the great majority of his supporters are hostile to the present State administration, and will under no circumstances be prevailed upon to support Beckham for a second term.

Judge Breckinridge, who is a personal friend of Col. John K. Hendrick, will remain on the stump in the interest of the Paducah statesman.

STRANGE DOINGS

In Which Gov. Beckham Takes a Hand.

Bond Forfeiture Reduced in Order to Save Negro Henchman From Paying $2,000 Judgment.

Louisville, Ky., April 17.—It was discovered yesterday that Gov. Beckham has reduced to $50 the bond forfeitures in the cases Edward Palmer, known as "Michigan Kid," and Fred Smith, who were arrested on December 18 last, tried in the police court, placed under bond of $1,000 each, and later disappeared from the city without answering in court. Their bond was furnished by D. J. Bonner, a colored attorney, at 414 Green street. A judgment of $2,000 was rendered against him by Judge McCann.

Palmer and Smith are said by the police to be notorious crooks. Their capture was considered very timely, as preventing numerous robberies in this city. Bonner, who is said to conduct a bond syndicate, went on the men's bond. There was practically no defense. The judgment for the full amount was quickly rendered against him.

Although the action of the governor, in remitting the forfeiture took place on April 10, it was kept so quiet that it only came to the light yesterday. Mr. Henry Schweiters, deputy clerk of the police court, who keeps the official records, was seen by a reporter and asked in regard to the report that the forfeitures had been reduced. He showed the official order whereby the forfeiture was reduced to $50. He said that the governor had not given any reason for this action.

Clerk Al Oldham was seen. He showed the official order whereby the forfeiture was reduced to $50. He said that the governor had not given any reason for this action.

Judge Pratt is considered the strongest man in the State to lead the fight against the enemy in the coming State campaign.

For the Republicans to elect State officers it will be necessary for them to make a gain of about 4,000 votes over the election of the year 1900.

Of Milling Products Are Penalized by New Law.

The weight of stored packages is also prescribed and must be followed out.

Walks Without Crutches.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgewick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c 50c and $1.00 at R. C. Hardwick.

A FORMALITY OVERLOOKED.

How One Love Affair Did Not Come to an End.

He had come, as she had told him to, with all the letters she had ever written to him, and he had placed them on the table before her.

She had his letters put up in a neat bundle, says the Detroit Free Press, and tied with a blue ribbon. There was an engagement ring, too. It pained her excessively to hand that back to him, for it was a beautiful one. The stone was a flawless gem. All the girls had admired it, and many of the girls had envied her possession of it. But of course she could not keep it since she was not to be his wife. Some girls might keep engagement rings after they had broken with the giver, but Irene McGillivuddy was not one of them. She gave it back.

There were some other trifles, too—a few odd trinkets that he had given her from time to time since they had plighted their troth. They were made into a neat little package. The diamond ring occupied a neat little box by itself, as befitting its splendid significance. Mechanically he put the article into his pocket, and then rose to take his leave.

"Good evening and good-by, Miss McGillivuddy," he said.

He spoke in a shaky, moist voice.

"Good-by, Mr. Thornton," said she.

Her voice was moister and more shaky.

Then he ought to have gone, but he did not. He stood a moment, and then said:

"So this is the end?"

She nodded.

She could not trust her voice.

"The end of all our sweet dreams of happiness that we have dreamed in the past three months?"

"The end," assented she.

He put his hand on the door-knob and turned it.

She gave a little choking cough.

He halted.

"Mr. Thornton—George," she said.

"Well?"

"Haven't you forgotten something?"

He surveyed the table. He had gathered everything up.

"What have I forgotten?" he asked.

"Aren't you—aren't you—going to—kiss me good-by?"

FOUNDER OF FEZ.

Was Indrees II. Who Lived Nearly a Thousand Years Ago.

Indrees II. was the founder of Fez, in the one hundredth and ninety-second year after the Hegira, which corresponds to the year 808 of the Christian era. The site was found for him by his vizier, the abundance of water having decided in its favor. There were 60 springs on the site, and luxuriant vegetation. The sultan himself, it is said, turned the first sod of the new city with a hoe (fas), saying: "Here do I plant my fas," and so, says the Detroit Free Press, the city came by its name. This was the old Fez (Fas el Bali), and it was divided into two regions, the Andalus bank of the river, and the Karneen bank. The dwellers on the Andalus bank were those who had been turned out of Spain by one of the early caliphs; the Karneen folk were of eastern origin, and they were generally fighting one with the other. In 1204 the walls were built, and in 1274 the new town, Fas Jadeded, was erected. Soon afterwards the mosques and palaces were built, and since that time there has been little or no change in the aspect of the town. Fez is, therefore, practically a thirteenth century oriental city, just as it was at the time of the last crusade, and it gives to the stranger who sees it for the first time an indescribable impression of picturesque and warlike grandeur, with its battlemented walls and gates, and its three outlying forts, which, however, were only built in 1590.

The Funny Man.

"Street car conductors experience more trouble with men who consider themselves funny than with any other class of passengers," remarked an employee of the Capital Traction company who collects fares on the Fourteenth street line. "On my last trip up I inquired, as usual: 'Transfer for 12?' I felt like committing murder when a little man in a far corner of the front car yelled: 'No, not for you; let's have a transfer for me to U. street.' The individual grimaced as though he had said something worthy of a humorist," added the disgusted conductor. "It's just that kind of citizen I'd like to supply with cause for filing suit against the company to recover damages for personal injuries."—Washington Star.

Sick Women are Invited to Consult Doctor Pierce by Letter Free

Free medical advice is offered by many who are not qualified to practice medicine, and whose "medical" advice is therefore worse than worthless, because it is dangerous. Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter is not to be confounded with spurious offers of free medical advice. As chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., assisted by his medical staff of nearly a score of physicians, Dr. R. V. Pierce has in a little more than thirty years treated and cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women.

The most sensitive can address Dr. Pierce in perfect freedom. All letters are held as strictly private, and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultations with weak and sick women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"About four months ago I wrote to you, for advice, and you very kindly advised me what to take," writes Mrs. Ida May Chandler, of Sandusky, Ind. "I did as you directed. At the time I was hardly able to be up at all, and what I suffered for four years God alone knows. I was nothing but a walking skeleton, but now I feel like a new woman. I would have written before but was waiting to see how I would get along. Dear Doctor, I am so thankful to you and to God for your 'Favorite Prescription' and for the fatherly letter you wrote me. Had it not been for you, I would have been in my grave to-day, but, instead, am on the road to recovery. Maybe this will influence some other poor suffering woman to come to you for advice."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Sometimes a dealer will offer a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" as "just as good." Judged by its record of cures of womanly ills, there is no other medicine just as good as "Favorite Prescription."

THEIR ORANGE A LEMON.

An Experience of Department of Agriculture Scientists.

In an effort to secure a hardy orange, one impervious to frost, the scientists of the department of agriculture labored for years and have produced a lemon. The orange growers of Florida complained to the department that the orange growing industry was unprofitable because of the destruction of fruit by frost.

"We'll produce an orange that will grow with ice hanging to the trees," declared the scientists of the department. They went to work to secure a frost-resisting plant which could be grown as far north as South Carolina, the fruit of which could be used in the manufacture of marmalade.

Plant breeding was begun and hybrids obtained which would grow almost to the north pole. Money was appropriated by congress for the carrying on of this work despite the protests of the orange growers of California, who insisted that they had more oranges than they could sell and that if the Florida crops were bad they would get more for their product. The advocates of the Florida orange triumphed. They told the committee of agriculture of the house that they did not want to abandon their business simply because the orange growers of California had more oranges than they wanted. They told of the accidents of the business, how they had to build bonfires to keep off the frost, cover their plants, spray water and do other things. The hearts of the committee were touched for about $10,000. The scientists were much impressed with even this appropriation and declared that unless a frost-resisting orange could be produced the principal industry of Florida would disappear. The scientists worked and worked for four years. Finally they reported progress and when they asked for an additional appropriation to continue the work, the committee asked:

"What is the quality of this frost-resisting orange you have produced?"

"Well, it is not exactly an orange," replied the scientists. "It is nearer a lemon."

A FATAL MISTAKE

Is Often Made By The Wisest People.

It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache. Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills. Serious complications follow. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly. Don't delay until too late. Until it becomes diabetes—Bright's disease.

Read what this gentleman says: Capt. D. W. Welsh, keeper of the Wood County Infirmary, Parkersburg, W. Va., says: "I had to go around trying to evade pain constantly, aware that a false step, jerk or twist would bring punishment, and I was afraid to handle anything for fear of a reminder in the shape of a twinge of pain. I traded at Dr. J. N. Murdoch's drug store on Third street, and have something to get in the drug line every time I come in. It was there I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and took a supply home with me and used them. My wife used them and my sister, Mrs. A. Amick, of No. 645 Second street, used them. They cured the three of us. I am here in the city every few days and can substantiate the remarks I have made."

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. K. Wily, drugist.

New Jail For Clinton County.

The Fiscal Court of Clinton county, has decided to build a new jail to cost $10,000, and have ordered bonds to be issued for said amount and increase the poll tax from $1 to $1.50 and added twenty-five cents per $100 this year to be used as a jail fund. A jail is badly needed as several prisoners have escaped in the last few years, and, besides, its sanitary condition is anything but good.

Grip Remedies in Great Demand.

When colds and grip are prevalent the quickest and surest remedies are in great demand. Mr. Joseph D. Williams, of McDuff, Va., says that he was cured of a very deep and lasting attack of la grippe by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after trying several other preparations with no effect. ELIGIBILITY OPINION.

"If a political party fails to nominate a candidate who is eligible to office that party must bear the burden."

FIGURES AND FIGURES.

The New Era of Friday reduces to figures, for the first time, the wild and ridiculous claims of Judge Cook's supporters, and presents these estimates:

"The friends of Judge Cook here are in receipt of letters from some of the most reliable men in Calloway, Lyon and Trigg, claiming that Judge Cook will carry Calloway by from 1,200 to 1,800 majority. Trigg county by from 500 to 800 majority and Lyon county by from 300 to 400 majority. Taking the lowest of the majorities claimed by the friends of Judge Cook in Calloway, Trigg and Lyon counties—
Calloway..... 1,200
Trigg..... 500
Lyon..... 300

makes his majority in the three counties..... 2,000

"So Mr. Bush would, according to this count, have to get 2,000 majority in Christian county to win. Of course this is impossible, as it is not probable that the vote in Christian county in the primary will much exceed 2,000, if it exceeds it at all."

In order that the absurdity of these figures may be apparent to the most casual reader, we here tabulate the Democratic vote of the Third district in 1900. It is claimed that in Christian county with a popular candidate of its own and "a very interesting and exciting" race, that only 2,000 votes will be polled. This is 61 per cent. of the total vote and assuming that the percentage cast in the other counties will be equally as heavy, the following exhibit will give the New Era's estimates in plain figures, based on 61 per cent. of the entire vote. Here are the figures:

BRYAN, 61 PER CENT.
Calloway..... 2,875
Christian..... 3,204
Lyon..... 1,905
Trigg..... 1,533

Total..... 8,678
In order to give Judge Cook the "minimum majorities" estimated in Calloway, Lyon and Trigg, and a close and doubtful stand-off in Christian, the county being claimed "by friends of both gentlemen," we give another table with the votes arranged so as to give the majorities claimed in this absurd estimate:

COOK, 61 PER CENT.
Calloway..... 1,477
Christian..... 1,000
Lyon..... 457
Trigg..... 767

Total..... 3,701

If we give Cook 800 majority in Trigg county, which is one of the New Era's "reliable" claims, the vote would have to stand 917 for Cook and 117 for Bush.

If we give Cook "400 majority" in Lyon, the vote would have to stand 507 for Cook to 107 for Bush.

If we give Cook 1,800 majority in Calloway, he would have to receive every one of the 1,754 votes cast and 44 would have to vote twice.

It will be observed further that Bush is conceded only 701 votes in the three lower counties, while his friends have every reason to believe that he will get 1,000 votes in Cal-

It's a warning, too, which only the hazardous fail to heed.

Accept no substitute. "I felt tired all the time and could not sleep. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a while I could sleep well and the tired feeling had gone. This great medicine has also cured me of scrofula." Mrs. C. M. Moor, Gilsum, Conn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

loway county alone. A careful estimate of Lyon county has been made and revised and not allowing for changes shown in Bush's favor, he will get 525 votes in an estimated vote of 925.

In Trigg county all reports admit that the county is close and doubtful, with Judge Cook getting the worst of it in the joint discussions and making his campaign altogether on the defensive.

As a very conservative and perfectly fair estimate of the vote in the district, based on 61 per cent. of the Bryan vote, we submit the following:

BUSH, 61 PER CENT.
Christian..... 1,500
Calloway..... 827
Lyon..... 357
Trigg..... 517

Total..... 3,201

We regard the estimate of 61 per cent. as too low. In our judgment the total vote will exceed 6,000 and the vote in Christian county will be about 2,400 and in Calloway 2,000. We believe Bush will have 1,200 majority in Christian county and that Cook cannot possibly get half that much in Calloway county and it is a fair estimate to figure that Bush's majority in Lyon will fully offset any majority Trigg may give Cook.

If the election were to come off tomorrow, Bush would win by from 300 to 1,000 majority and he will grow stronger every day until May 9.

No, gentle reader, in spite of reports to the contrary, the KENTUCKIAN has not said Judge Cook's friends were all liars and thieves. Such is not the case and the KENTUCKIAN does not knowingly misrepresent. Judge Cook attacked the truthfulness of a report of one of his speakings, intimating that somebody had lied. The KENTUCKIAN suggested that honors would at least be even on this and other lines of classification. The attempt to create prejudice against Judge Bush, who was out of the county, because the editor objected to having his neck chewed by Judge Cook in his glass house, is too thin. There was nothing denunciatory or unkind in the suggestion to Judge Cook. We like Judge and if he works a miracle and gets on the ticket again, we shall be for him tooth and toenail. In the meanwhile, if anybody that ain't one thinks we meant him, we hope he will come in and let us take it all back.

Judge Robt. J. Breckenridge, in a card Saturday addressed to Chairman Young, retired from the contest for Governor, giving as a reason that he had become convinced that he could not win the nomination. This brings the issue down to a contest between one machine and one anti-machine candidate. It is quite likely that nearly all of Judge Breckenridge's support will now go to Col. Hendrick and his followers are of Hall's course greatly gratified that the opposition to Beckham is to be concentrated on one candidate.

The Beckhams have figured it out that Calhoun got 5 1/2 per cent. for collecting the $1,300,000 war claim, and 10 per cent. for collecting the $140,000 soldiers' claim. The auditor of the state is paid a fair compensation for collecting the entire revenues of the state, a much more difficult task than going to Washington and returning. About what "per cent." does he get out of it for his services?

AT THE PARTY'S RISK.

Judge Payster was emphatic in the statement in the Beckham-Young case, on appeal from Judge Cantrill, that the party who nominated an ineligible candidate did it at its own risk, and what did that mean? Judge Cantrill had decided that Beckham was eligible. The case went to the court of appeals with all presumptions in favor of the judgment of the eligibility to show to the court that the judgment of the Woodford circuit was not the law. That they did so is evident not alone from the fact that the court of appeals refused to pass upon the question, but in the stern admonition of Judge Payster, in a case brought for the purpose of determining the eligibility of Beckham, that the party which nominated an ineligible candidate did it at its own risk.

There is no escaping the conclusion. Neither is there possibility of mistaking the terrific effects of the adverse finding on Beckhams—Owensboro Messenger.

The "ovation" that has been crowding 200-crowds into 200-court houses from Princeton to Fulton, fairly overflowed the town at Aysersville, and 1,500 people were packed in the opera house with a seating capacity of a few hundred. Mott himself teched him off and the surprising part of it all was that the roof remained on the house. Oh! it was a glorious occasion, but we didn't observe the name of Uncle Josh Naylor on the reception committee. What a pity Uncle Josh wasn't there to move to make it unanimous.

The County Committee of Christian county will meet next Thursday to select officers from the official lists of the candidates and assurances are given that the law will be observed and a fair deal given Hendrick and other anti-machine candidates. The Kentuckian has confidence in the Democrats of Christian county and does not believe that frauds will be perpetrated in the election by sworn officers.

Prof. Pickering, of Harvard Observatory, has arrived at the conclusion from observations taken during the recent eclipse, that there is hoar frost on the moon. This being the case, the man in the moon probably has the same trouble with his fruit crop that causes the rest of us to lose sleep.

It is now a clear-cut issue of the people against the machine—strong, boastful and defiant. The people have it in their power to crush the machine as Montague crushed it in Virginia. If they do not arise in their might and sweep the ringsters out of power, God help the Democratic party.

The Hawesville Clarion concludes a ray account of the Beckham speaking at Hawesville with this:

"The effort was a disappointment and half a thousand male and female Democrats, Republicans, Populists and floaters went out into the night with much diminished ideas of a Governor's size."

The State Medical Society will hold its 48th annual meeting in Louisville this week, beginning tomorrow.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

WHAT JUDGE PRYOR SAID.

"We would like to have had the court pass on the question of eligibility, but in case of a contest that will go before the legislature.
The legislature will certainly be Democratic and of course would decide for Beckham," said Judge Pryor, after the recent decision of the court of appeals. Judge Mc-Queen, of Bowling Green, said: "I would have much preferred to have had the court pass upon the eligibility of Gov. Beckham." The above statements were made by Beckham's attorneys and are quoted here to show that the court refused to pass on the question of Beckham's eligibility, no matter what some papers are saying to the contrary. The above statements of learned attorneys have been published heretofore in these columns and are repeated now to give emphasis to the situation.

Attention is also called to what the court said at that time about the primary being held under the law. We deem it useless to say more at this time of the court's opinion in the case, as the entire opinion has already been published in these columns. We will, however, call the attention of our readers to what Judge Pryor, one of Beckham's lawyers, has to say about the court's decision. It will be remembered that Pryor was one of the three Election Commissioners in 1899, whose duty it was to canvass the vote after the election and give certificates to successful candidates. Wm. Goebel headed the Democratic ticket that year and had made the most brilliant campaign in the history of the state, against the greatest odds.

Bradley, who was the governor of the state, had gone to Louisville on the day of the election, called out the militia and in person directed their movements. The sole purpose in doing so, was to intimidate, and keep from the polls, Democratic voters. The plan succeeded, many Democrats thereby being deprived of their votes. In going to Louisville with the militia, Governor Bradley clearly violated the law, for this reason the vote in the city of Louisville was finally thrown out. During the count of the vote, after the polls were closed, in many of the precincts, men claiming to be inspectors forced their way into the voting places and took charge of the count. On account of these irregularities, some of the election officers refused to sign the returns until compelled to do so by an order from Judge Toney, who was acting for the so-called "Honest Election League." headed by the notorious John H.
Whallen. The officers then made affidavits that the vote was not correct, and these affidavits were carried before the Election Commission. When Messrs. Pryor, Ellis and Poyntz, the three election commissioners, met in Frankfort to count the vote and award certificates of election, they were urged to give the certificates of election to the Democrats, for the reasons above set forth. All three members agreed that the Democrats were entitled to the offices, but Pryor and Ellis contended that the law only made them a canvassing board. The Democratic candidates believing they were entitled to the offices, employed Judge Hargis, one of the ablest lawyers in the state and an ex-judge of the court of appeals, to present their view of the matter to the commission. Judge Hargis took the position that the commission should sit then and there as a board of contest and hear evidence, and if the Democratic ticket had been fairly elected, they could give them the certificate. In this he was upheld by many authorities which he cited to prove his contention. Mr. Poyntz agreed with Judge Hargis' view of the case, but Pryor and Ellis took the position that they must first sit as a canvassing board and give a certificate, and when this was done, they could sit, as a contest board and take the certificates from the one to which it had been given. This view was not shared in by the Democratic contestants and they urged Judge Pryor not to give a certificate at all, but to let Gov-nor Bradley serve until the commission could hear the contest. Pryor told them he was sitting as a canvassing board and giving a certificate, and while he believed the Democrats were entitled to the offices, he thought it best to give the certificates to the Republican candidates. He said the board would immediately meet and hear the contest and seat the Democrats, as he was satisfied they were fairly elected. Much to the chagrin of Democrats throughout the state the Election Commissioners turned the offices over to the Republicans.

This action brought about a contest and before it could be heard Pryor and Ellis resigned from the board. This is Judge Pryor's record, this is the example he has set, and yet, when the legislature was placed in the position he occupied in '99, he unhesitatingly says, "The Legislature will be Democratic and will seat Beckham." A statement of this kind coming from the general run of everyday enthusiastic Democrats, is but natural and causes no great amount of comment one way or the other, but coming from a man like Judge Pryor, who was one of the attorneys in this important case, it does not sound half so well, especially, as he filed this suit in order to have the court of appeals relieve the embarrassing position in which Governor Beckham was placed by reason of the fact that his eligibility was questioned by many, very many Democrats. Failing to have the court declare Beckham eligible, he makes use of the expression above named, in our judgment a very unfortunate expression for any one to make.
It comes in bad form from a man who has once been placed in a similar position and who, when the critical moment came, deserted and that too while declaring that the Democrats were fairly and honestly elected. What though the Legislature would seat Beckham, who wants another contest? Certainly the Democrats of Kentucky will stand for their rights, but just in case they do not desire another contest if it can be avoided.
What kind of an argument would Pryor's statement make for the Democrats, with which to meet Republican campaign speakers, or how could they defend such statements against the enemy? We, too, believe and hope that the Legislature will be democratic, but suppose it is and suppose they should suit Beckham, that will not change the views of thousands of Democrats who honestly think him ineligible and furthermore it will leave the party open to criticism in the years to come. In our humble opinion Judge Pryor would have been justified in awarding the Democratic candidates certificates of election in '99, yet he shrank from that duty and gave the offices to Republicans and the very worst element of the party at that. And yet he would not have the Legislature do what he refused to do for his party in its most critical moment. With this state of affairs confronting the party, when older men like Pryor have nothing better to suggest than a contest before the Legislature, would it not be the part of wisdom for Democrats who love their party, to vote for a man over whose head there hangs no cloud? Why should the Democratic party be compelled to wade through the mire and excruciating incertitude to another contest, simply to gratify Beckham's ambition? His true friends, who love the party better than they do the ambition of any man, have, many of them, called on him to withdraw from the race.
With such a state of case existing,
as has above been mentioned, it is easy for any thinking man to see that Beckham would make a dangerous candidate for the Democrats to nominate. With this situation facing us, it seems needless to urge the Democrats to come out and vote against such a candidate. John Hendrick is a home man, he lives in the greatest Democratic stronghold in the state, he is honest, able and patriotic. If the First district does her full duty by him he can easily win the nomination. The most encouraging reports come from every section of the state in which he has been. Let us then begin urging the Democrats to come out and poll the full party strength for him in this section, on May 7th, so that he may start on his triumphal march up the state with a majority that cannot be overcome. It is our duty, let us do it gladly and graciously.—Clinton Democrat.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I was very ill, myself, with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth, I at times kept from coughing my self to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spells would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise in putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr.
Grip had bid me adieu." For sale

BOXES OF BONES.

Search For Skeletons Continued and Many Found.

Work in Christian County Completed and Shipment of "Find" Made Last Saturday.

Archaeologist Morehead, of the Phillips Academy at Andover, Mass., continued his search for skeletons and other relics on the farm of Mr. James Willis eight miles east of the city, spending all last week in the county. He was assisted by Mr. Chas. Anderson, of this city. About half a dozen colored men were employed in doing the excavating. About 30 more skeletons were found, making 50 in all. The skulls and leg and arm bones were in a good state of preservation.

Two complete skeletons were unearthed. All of the bones were found in graves about two feet deep, surrounded by stone. About 100 graves were opened, but the skeletons in many of them were so badly decayed that they could not be removed.

Many relics were found, among the number being buttons made of cannon coal, and a lot of tomahawks, pipes, etc.

The search has been completed in this county and ten boxes containing the "find" were shipped from here Saturday, the destination being Andover.

Mr. Anderson has some excellent photographs of the grounds where the skeletons were unearthed and several pictures of the bones lying in the graves of stone.

Stanley-Soaper.

The marriage of Mon. A. O. Stanley and Miss Sue Soaper to be solemnized on Wednesday evening 9 o'clock April 29th, has been the subject of conversation in society circles since the official announcement made in the Gleaner several weeks since. All society is on tip-toe of interested anticipation of the event which is to unite for better or for worse a young couple so universally esteemed and admired.

Mrs. Hamilton Stites, sister of the bride-to-be is to be the matron of honor, Mr. Charles Hardin, of Harrodsburg, Ky., the groom's best man. The maids selected to attend the bride are Misses Frances Soaper, Miriam Stirling, Jessie Clark, Mary Rankin and Lucy Sneed. The selected groomsmen are Messrs. John Tevis, of Louisville, Will Stanley, of Nicholasville, Dudley Lindsay, of Owensboro; Dr. W. I. Thompson and William H. Soaper of Henderson. Rt. Rev. Thomas U. Dudley, Bishop of the Diocese of Kentucky, Louisville, will officiate, assisted by Rev. L. W. Rose, Rector of St. Paul's church this city. The interesting event will be solemnized at St. Paul's church on the evening and date mentioned.—Henderson Gleaner.

"A Gambler's Daughter."

Coming to Holland's Opera House tonight is one of the strongest sensational melo-dramas of the day, "A Gambler's Daughter." The piece was written by Lucian Davis the author of "Lost In The Desert" "Through The Breakers", etc., and this latest work from his pen has proven one of the most popular of all. It is full of excitement and startling situations throughout the four acts. All the scenery is new and elaborate.

In the cast are the best known actors and actresses of the stage. The leading woman is Miss Lillian Hayward, who is well known and an idol of the footlights. She makes a sweet, lovable and altogether charming heroine and plays the heroine with a dash and spirit that many an actress may well envy. Camilla Crume, Marie Laurens, Elsie Frazee, James Norval, C. W. Goodrich, Walter Stanhope, J. J. Hyland, Allan Foster, F. K. Wallace, Andrew Quirk, are some of the other principals in the piece and all are well known and popular favorites.

The Methodist Meeting.

The services at the Methodist church are deepening in interest and widening in influence. The Rev. Mr. Clark is preaching with great acceptance to those who hear him. He throws his whole soul into the work. A very humble, modest man, and at the same time full of manly vigor. A man to whom we instinctively apply the epithet "true blue"—or in Bible phraseology "an Israelite indeed in whom there is no guile." The power of the Divine Presence is signally manifest in the morning prayer services (from 8 to 9 o'clock). Mr. Clark preaches at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. daily. At 3 p. m. there is a praise and prayer service, and at 7 p. m. prayer service for women in the pastor's office, and for men in the infant class room. A cordial invitation is extended to all the people in city and country to attend the services.

TRUSTS!

Are the natural enemies of the farmer. When he goes to sell the products of his farm he wants as many buyers to compete for these commodities as can be obtained. Then when he wants to make a purchase of an implement he doesn't care how many sources present themselves from which he can buy. The more, the better for him. To illustrate, if he wants a binder he will find that the Deering, McCormick, Plano, Milwaukee and Champion are all in a combination and afford him no competition.

THE OSBORNE

IS THE ONLY binder obtainable in this county that is not in this combination. The farmer's only hope to get binders in future at reasonable prices.

Helping the Osborne Company means fighting the trusts. The owner of the big Osborne Machine Company made speeches all over the State of New York last year against trusts. He is a man of the people, for the people, and his binder is the binder for the people. If his company goes down under the assaults of the trusts, the farmer has no alternative but to buy trust binders.
